Call to Order: Chairman Spencer Hamner called the meeting to order at 6:35 p.m.

Invocation: Commissioner Keith Caddy led the Invocation.

Pledge of Allegiance: was led by John Rieser.

Welcome Attendees & Guests: Chairman Hamner welcomed the attendees and acknowledged it was Flag Day; that some special flags were on display in the back of the room, one being the flag he brought from the Demilitarized Zone between North and South Korea, and told of the recent trip he took with his family.

Elected Officials' Reports:

Senator Coram and Representative Catlin: briefly acknowledge the end of a productive session but gave no official reports.

Commissioner Keith Caddy: reported the Commissioners were deep in the budget cycle, and working with the hospital to provide the availability of medical services throughout the county.

Coroner Tom Canfield: reported his office was within budget.

CU Regent Glen Gallegos: reported on his run for re-election; the CU Board of Regents; medical resource advancements coming from the institution, and it's affect on the 3rd Congressional District.

Minutes Approval: The Chairman called for a motion for approval of the published May 10th Minutes of the Meeting which was given by Dianna Coram, and seconded by Jim Dittmar.

Treasurer's Report: Deb Hunter reported on the current balance; paid checks; and the $18.88 program for monthly donations for the newly leased office space. The Tracer report is not yet complete.

Unfinished/Ongoing Business:

New office opening: Chairman Hamner announced the grand opening date of June 21st at 5:30. Primary candidates and local elected officials are scheduled to speak briefly. Allan Miller reported on the Spectrum connection and the monthly cost for phone and internet service which would require a vote of the committee to approve funding. A motion was made by Dr. Canfield to approve such funding; it was seconded by Kay Heinschel and declared passed by the Chairman.

A list of basic needs was announced. The new phone number is: 970-615-7411.

Upcoming primary election: Clerk and Recorder Tressa Guynes reported 3,328 ballots had been received to date and signature verifications have started. Voting machines will be available Monday, and the SOS will be doing a site inspection. We also heard a report on the challenges of the double ballot issue, and the excess printing costs to the county.

A new software system is scheduled to be installed and training in Grand Junction is ongoing. This will result in the office closing August 1st through the 5th when renewals will have to be made online.

LAT report: Rick Fellabaum reported on how impressed he was with the Logic and Accuracy Test he participated in to test accuracy results prior to the election.

New Business:

Sign in: Charli Oswald announced that only elected Central Committee members are required to sign in; all others only need to indicate if they are not getting the emails. Kerri Catlin explained that registering online at the website will help correct issues with getting emails.

Fourth of July: Attendees are invited to join in and invite others.

County Fair: A booth has been confirmed for the County Fair. Anyone interested in helping is encouraged to sign up. The Fair parade will be on July 23rd and several vehicles will be participating. Dianna Coram will be helping to organize the line-up that will start at North 9th and Nevada.
